A RELATIONSHIP-FIRST BEGINNING

A family business built on trust, care, and follow-through.

1951

Family owned and serving Bakersfield for generations.

75+ Years helping families

Hardt Construction Services (HCS) is a family owned design-build general contractor rooted in Bakersfield since 1951. For more than 75 years, families and business owners have trusted HCS to improve the places where life and work happen every day.

Experience you can trust

The first conversation is not about pressure to buy. It is about understanding your home, your goals, your budget, and the level of guidance needed to move forward with confidence.

> "Our goal is to make the remodeling experience feel clear, personal, and well guided from the first idea to the finished home.

FROM VISION TO FINISHED HOME — A COMPLETE DESIGN-BUILD PATH

HCS brings design and construction together early, helping homeowners understand feasibility, selections, budget direction, schedule expectations, and construction requirements before major decisions are made.

1. Listen
   We start with your goals, lifestyle, concerns, priorities, and budget direction.

2. Design
   On-staff accredited designers help shape selections, flow, function, and visual direction.

3. Develop
   An on-staff architect supports plans, structure, code needs, and permit readiness.

4. Clarify
   Transparent pricing and scope discussions help create realistic project expectations.

5. Build
   A guided team carries the work, communication, quality control, and final turnover.

A clearer beginning creates a smoother building experience.

SPACES DESIGNED AROUND YOU

HCS
HARDT CONSTRUCTION SERVICES

Spaces designed around the way you live.

Every home has potential. HCS helps clients think through what is possible and then brings the right planning, design, craftsmanship, and project leadership to make the transformation feel intentional.

KITCHENS
Designed around gathering, storage, everyday routines, and lasting value.

PRIMARY BATHROOMS
Calm, refined spaces with better function, comfort, and storage.

WHOLE-HOME REFRESHES
Updated flow, finishes, lighting, and cohesion across the home.

ADDITIONS + ADUS
Purpose-built space for family needs, guests, work, or future flexibility.

OUTDOOR SPACES
Warm outdoor living, pools, patios, kitchens, and year-round entertaining.

PROJECT DEVELOPMENT
Early planning, selections, feasibility, and construction clarity.

Serving the Central Valley and Central Coast

From Bakersfield homes to coastal retreats, HCS approaches each project as a personal investment in how clients want to live. The goal is not simply to remodel a room; it is to shape a home that feels considered, comfortable, and built to last.

Built around your life, not a sales script.

Guidance before the first wall comes down.

A successful remodel starts with clarity. HCS helps clients organize ideas, understand design options, refine selections, and see how decisions affect budget, schedule, and daily life during construction.

On-Staff Accredited Designers

Design guidance for finishes, fixtures, cabinetry, surfaces, layout feel, and project continuity.

On-Staff Architect

Planning support for structural needs, additions, ADUs, code requirements, and permit-ready documentation.

Transparent Budget Discussions

Scope and pricing are discussed clearly so clients understand what is included and what remains open.

Visual Planning

Renderings, walk-through thinking, selections, and finish direction help clients see the home before it is built.

The intent is not simply to choose finishes. It is to shape a home that feels right, functions well, and can be built with confidence.

CONSTRUCTION WITH CLARITY

HCS

A steady process you can feel comfortable with.

TRANSPARENT COMMUNICATION, CARE, AND CRAFTSMANSHIP

Remodeling asks a homeowner to place trust in the people entering and changing the home. HCS focuses on clear communication, careful sequencing, and respect for the household throughout the process.

Clear Scope

A written agreement, design direction, and expectations before construction begins.

Permits + Inspections

HCS supports the necessary approvals and code requirements for appropriate project types.

Project Team

A familiar point of contact helps coordinate daily field communication.

Quality Checks

Workmanship, trade details, and finish standards are reviewed during the process.

Client Updates

Client online portal with daily pictures and updates, schedule notes, and practical next steps help clients stay informed.

Final Walkthrough

The finished project is reviewed together for completion, details, and handoff.

What our clients appreciate most.

What Our Clients Appreciate Most

Our clients consistently point to clear communication, respectful jobsite practices, thoughtful design guidance, and dependable follow-through as the qualities that make the HCS experience different.

> Professional, clean, and respectful of our home. We are thrilled with our bathroom suite remodel and will definitely be calling Hardt Construction for our next project.
> — Deanna P.

> Michelle has an incredible eye for detail. She took our dated 1980s kitchen and transformed it into a modern masterpiece that actually works for our family's lifestyle.
> — Stephnie A.

> Communication is where HCS really shines. From the initial 3D renderings to the final punch list, they kept us informed and answered every text and email promptly.
>
> — Michael W.

A client experience built on trust

These comments reinforce the same HCS priorities throughout the handout: clear expectations, respectful communication, careful planning, and quality follow-through.

What happens after the initial consultation?

The initial consultation gives HCS a chance to understand the project, the home, the priorities, and the level of scope or planning needed. From there, the next step is shaped around the client's goals and the information required to move forward responsibly.

Review Goals

Priorities, lifestyle needs, budget sensitivity, and must-haves.

Clarify Scope

What is included, what needs pricing, and what choices are still open.

Discuss Design Needs

Selections, drawings, architectural needs, and planning requirements.

Outline a Path

Proposed next steps, schedule expectations, and decision points.

A HOME-BUILDER RELATIONSHIP THAT FEELS PERSONAL

Built around your life.

Mission Statement

Every project starts with listening: how your family lives, what feels unfinished, and what would make home work better day to day. From kitchens and baths to additions, ADUs, and outdoor spaces, HCS brings careful planning, steady communication, and hands-on craftsmanship to create spaces that feel comfortable, useful, and truly yours.

Ready when you are.
